

De val

Risico's te over dagelijks in het leven niet dat er allemaal even zwaar aan getild wordt.

De risico's in de sport zijn meer fataal althans in het beleven na een optreden pover.

Naast de sportieve val ongelukkigerwijs is er een onverwachte deuk in het zelfvertrouwen.

Nadenken over opbouwen van spanning is leuk zoals deze 'éminence grise' het later ook nog brengen zal.

Hij heeft hiervoor een neus geschonden en wel na een 'lichte' touché met de achterraut van een voiture.

Ook een plekje op zijn coiffure geschaafd het plissé toch naar de studio en snel sensatie verhoogd, fabuleus.

Een teken aan de wand?

"Downfall" - Architects

They want all for one and none for all
I want to be there to witness the downfall

They'll only sell us out once our backs are turned And we'll keep paying the price until our lesson is learnt
So cast your votes
Watch them shed their skin
Every snake has its price
If the money's on the table they don't think twice
So cast your votes, watch them shed their skin

We are paralysed

But there are none so blind as those who will not see What's it going to take to get us to stand up?
'Cause you can see it in their eyes, they don't give a fuck
About what matters to us

Another faceless figure, an empty silhouette They'll line their pockets and leave us six feet deep in debt
So cast your votes, watch them shed their skin
Always out for blood, praying on the weak
We can count on them to paint the future bleak
But we're still standing by whilst they bleed us dry

We are paralysed

What's it going to take to get us to stand up?
'Cause you can see it in their eyes, they don't give a fuck
About what matters to us
So enough is enough
What's it going to take to get us to stand up?
'Cause you can see it in their eyes, they don't give a fuck

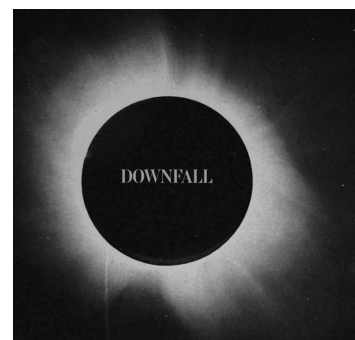

'Right' and wrong it's all the same to me Thick as thieves as far as I can see They are leeches all (they are leeches all)

'Right' and wrong it's all the same to me
Thick as thieves as far as I can see (I can see)
They are leeches all but we're still standing by whilst they bleed us dry

They want all for one and none for all
I want to be there to witness the downfall

We are paralysed

I want to be there to witness the downfall
