

Missing

No more spinning
missing friends
missing structure
gone the battle against myself.

I HAVEN'T FOUND A WAY TO REPLACE YOU, BUT I WISH I COULD

Really missing
no, not in the context at LW it made me feel depressed I became very stressed
no contact and all black.

What's next
holding the balance
in life and my body
active during the winter when all becomes more black.

There are points of light such as the 'black' ice condition by skating
swinging around in nature with some fanatic friends.

On the MTB in the woods
a glimpse of sunshine through trees slopes up an down
quiteness all around
head in the air and feet on the ground.

Really missing work
no, not at all
just some colleges
to strolling around
and get the 'higher' goals

Missing, just a little.
