Relive

Niets beter dan beleven
het alles te geven
voor je dromen
tijdig klaar te stomen
en resultaat na te streven.

Het rustige begin je hebt er zin in vooral met mooi weer
het gaat als een speer groeïend vertrouwen daarin.

En dan is het zover
de prestatie geleverd
je voelt je een megaster.

Pretend.Relive.Regret - Emarosa

Is this all a game?

I hate that you see me this way
I am followed, I am lost
Where I go, I'll never know
Was it a mistake?
Too many nights end up this way
I won't let it give me hope
You don't like to sleep alone
You trade a taste like currency
So blinded by
Lie here awake at night
And I knew the cost
And I'll have no remorse
And just like before, I'll move on

It was my mistake
To let in the pouring rain
The window never seems to close
I never seem to get away
Always the same
Proud of my distant memory
With the coming drought
I'm allowed to learn
And on this road
And in this place
I promised that I would never play it safe
And now you're gone
It feels so wrong
Just like before, I'll move on

Emotions gone
I swear that I've moved on
Take me all this way
And tonight you can stay
Cause you know what it feels like
When you've gotten so cold on the inside
Whoa, I'll give away like this tonight
This away, oh, tonight I will move on

I will move on, will move on

I will move on

Cause it takes a while to stop waiting up

To get over the need
Your loss, wasting time with you
But I'll take a life for you
To spend my life with you
And in the end you always leave

Cause it takes a while to stop waiting up

To get over the need
And in the end you always

Cause it takes a while to stop waiting up

To get over the need
Your loss, wasting time with you
